Healing with Animals Using Brennan Healing Science

Presented by Sandy Rakowitz

Sandy is a catalyst for people to awaken, enliven, and align with their soul energy and life purpose through the animals they love. She tends to the health and behavior of both people and animals by infusing leading-edge modalities such as Brennan Healing Science, Tellington TTouch, Animal Communication, Essential Oils, and Flower Essences. Sandy also assists people in discovering their natural animal communication and healing abilities and skills with animals. She bridges the gaps between people and their animals to deepen their partnerships and bonds with their beloved animals through practical and enlightening steps, stories, and experiences. Learn what the animals are saying so you can deepen your life's journey.

Sandy Rakowitz of One Heart Healing Center for People & Animals has been a pioneer in translating Brennan Energy Healing Medicine for people with animals. A 1995 graduate and former faculty of this “Harvard” of Energy Healing Schools, she has also developed expertise with leading-edge modalities like Tellington TTouch, Animal Communication, and Essential Oils. Her unique synthesis of approaches offers great depth and scope in aligning people and animals with their soul energies.
