

Donna Evans-Strauss

Donna Evans-Strauss is the former Dean of Year 4 Professional Studies, Former Department Head of Healing Science, and Former Director of the Brennan Integration Practitioner Advanced Training program at the Barbara Brennan School of Healing. She has a degree in Mental Health Technology from Hahnemann University.

Donna is the author of Blessings from a Thousand Generations. She also trained in early Object Relations work with Dr. Ormont in New York and Center for Intentional Living. In addition, she completed a two-year course as Past Life Regression Therapist with Dr John Amoroso. Her other trainings include Family dynamics, Psychodrama, and Art Therapy. Donna supervises psychotherapists and healers from around the world. She is currently training in the Association for Clinical Pastoral Counseling Program which requires 400 hours of Hospice Training. An accomplished and very popular presenter, Donna has given lectures and led workshops throughout the United States, Canada, Mexico, Germany, the Czech Republic and China.