

Jorge Barrieu

J. Jorge Barrieu is a natural-born and gifted healer as well as an acknowledged and respected spiritual teacher. Always an avid student of life, Jorge has had a dynamic intellectual curiosity and deep connection to Spirit since early childhood. He has worked in the healing arts for more than 21 years and has had a successful full-time healing and spiritual guidance practice in Manhattan for over 15 years.

Jorge graduated from the Barbara Brennan School of Healing in 2000. In 2009, he completed the Advanced Studies training in Brennan Integration Work at BBSH, which certifies him to work as a Brennan Integration Practitioner and supervisor with students of BBSH, and in June 2011 he completed the Teacher Training program at BBSH. Jorge went on to become a member of the BBSH faculty teaching on the 1st year team (in 2012) and on the 4th year team (from 2012 through 2014).

Jorge formally began his healing studies in 1994 when he studied Reiki with John Harvey Gray, one of the original 22 Reiki Master Instructors created by Hawayo Takata, the Japanese-American woman who first brought Reiki to the West. He also attended A Society of Souls where he undertook a three year training program in Integrated Kabbalistic Healing, a system of healing developed by internationally known spiritual teacher Jason Shulman.

Jorge is also the creator and founder of Sophianic Healing, a deeply transformative process for healing, personal growth and enlightenment, that synthesizes his wisdom and deep understanding of human nature with knowledge gained from years of study and practice in a wide variety of disciplines including the life sciences, quantum physics, transcendental psychology, energy anatomy and metaphysics.

Prior to commencing his formal training in healing, Jorge pursued his life-long interest in healing and the life sciences as an undergraduate pre-med student at Yale University where he received a B.A. in biology. Although he had originally planned to attend medical school, he instead went on to earn a J.D. law degree from New York University School of Law and had a successful career as a corporate attorney for over 13 years.

Jorge feels deeply inspired to assist in the evolution of humanity's consciousness through his healing work. His unique gift is to make the lessons of his own spiritual awakening accessible to others. Through his compassionate presence and his skills as an intuitive and empathic healer, he inspires his clients and students to go within to discover their own enlightened true nature.
